2. [REDACTED] delivered to me his completed factual study on the "Comprehensive Internal Audit Function in CIA." In brief, he concludes that the several Agency components do, in fact, collectively carry out all the functions which the General Accounting Office envisages in their comprehensive-type audit. He thinks that there may be a gap in that the Management Staff is not doing all that it should do and is supposed to do by Regulation.

3. [REDACTED] who is retiring was in to say goodbye. I talked to him about his Procurement Staff and he believes that he has some extremely well qualified people. He was quite clear in his thinking and in his recommendation that [REDACTED] is the best qualified man available to succeed him; however, inasmuch as Art is now [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is going to the Industrial College next year, he cannot be put in this position for at least another year and a half.
